

TRANS FORM ATION

CRITICAL PERSPECTIVES ON SOUTHERN AFRICA

91

Social Policy post-1994 in South Africa

- Steven Friedman: enabling agency – the Constitutional Court and social policy
- Robert van Niekerk on the politics of universalising health care in SA
- Steven Friedman and Sharon Groenmeyer: the collective bargaining regime
- Yusuf Sayed: public schooling in SA and the middle class
- Victoria Graham, Yolanda Sadie and Leila Patel: social grants, food parcels and voting behaviour
- Sharon Groenmeyer: political dynamics of adoption and child support grants
- Gavin Andersson and Peter Alexander: potentials and problems in the Community Work Programme